CHILDREN AND YOUNG PEOPLE (£1,418,359.16): the Programme will invest in children and young people aged 0-24 so that they can reach their potential and maximise their contribution to a more cohesive society. It will bring about change in the form of clear, meaningful and sustainable 'distance travelled' for individual young people in terms of good relations, personal development and citizenship.

SHARED SPACES AND SERVICES (£2,396,513.12): the Programme will support local initiatives with the aims of making public spaces in cities, towns and villages more inclusive; this will often involve addressing sensitive topics around parades, flags, emblems, graffiti and other issues which can serve to intimidate and make some members of society, whether based on religion, race or other factors feel unwelcome in some areas.

BUILDING POSITIVE RELATIONS (£2,934,458.34): the Programme will promote positive relations characterised by respect, where cultural diversity is celebrated and people can live, learn and socialise together, free from prejudice, hate and intolerance. The Programme will support actions to facilitate the full participation of women and also target those particularly
